

VOLUNTEERS WILL HELP DRIVE FOR CHAMBER MEMBERS

At the opening meeting of the membership campaign committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce last Friday, chairman T. B. Towner made the announcement that a number of volunteer workers were expected to cooperate with the regularly appointed teams in the drive for new members which opens Monday evening.

Present members have already been issued white buttons to distinguish them from new members who will be furnished with red buttons. Red and blue buttons of different designs than those furnished present members will be issued to respective workers of the Red and Blue divisions Monday. A list of all workers on each side will be submitted for publication Monday.

The zone committee headed by P. N. Sholar, chairman, which has been busy for two days mapping out the plan of campaign, submitted the report that 12 zones, in each of which there are 200 prospects, had been chosen as the best method by which to conduct the drive. Cards are being prepared showing the address of each prospect in the respective zones.

Louis Levy, chairman of the prize committee, was next heard from, and stated that four prizes would be given each day to captains of the two leading teams on each side. A prize will also be given the woman each day who has the highest number of new members to her credit. Loving cups have been given by George T. Brodnax, Inc., and Joseph Myers, Inc., one to be presented to the general of the winning side, and one to the captain of the team which has the greatest total when the final count is made.

Thousands of window, telephone post and street car cards are being printed for the opening of the campaign, it was reported by Sam D. Faxon, manager of publicity. In addition to the thousands of cards at the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, three sides of the board on the sixth floor of the hotel have been prepared and will be ready for the drive at the movie theaters. The Aladdin Road will also contribute its support.

The formal opening of the drive will occur at a meeting and dinner of the entire membership campaign team, Monday, evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce. At this time, President W. H. Fitzhugh will introduce the new president, Robert R. Ellis, who will deliver his inaugural address, after which other officers and directors will be formally installed. A K. K. Hough will act as toastmaster and a musical program will be rendered.

Mr. Hough, commander-in-chief of the two armies, stated that he had been in correspondence with several Southern cities to try to stir up some competition in the drive but all had refused. The total membership of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce is 2,100 members and there is absolutely no reason why we can not have the largest chamber of commerce south of the Mason-Dixon line.

L. M. Layne, general of the Blue division, announced that his headquarters during the drive would be at the Layne and Bowler clubrooms at 97 North Second street. The Blue division decided on a strategy that would announce it at an early date. General headquarters will be in the Chamber of Commerce building. Both generals have pledged themselves to devote all their time to the drive from Monday to Friday, and stated all workers would do likewise.

A board of strategy to direct the activities of the armies involved in next week's chamber of commerce membership campaign and to act as a final court in settling doubtful prospects was organized Saturday by Commander and Capt. Tom Fauntleroy, overseas veterans.

In-Chief Hough. The board with Mr. Hough will include Robert L. Jordan, W. J. Johnson, Frank N. Fisher, and S. B. Anderson, all past presidents, and J. A. Osmund, assistant secretary.

Two hours were devoted to the drilling of the eight companies which for the past school year have trained hard under the command of Capt. Paul C. Paschal, R. O. T. C. commandant. Prizes and cups were donated by the high school alumni and the Rotary club. Austin Carey was in charge of the tournament for the alumni. Hardwig Perez, of the school board, donated the silver cup which went to Company D.

Alfred McWhorter, Charles Craig and Charles Robbins were winners in individual drill competition. They were given medals. Miss Ceta Butler was sponsor for Company D, and Miss Florence Thompson and Miss Peggy Land were maids of honor. Charles Shannon, city commissioner, presented the medals and prizes.

The Idlewild Church

MUSIC

It has been the purpose of the music committee of the Idlewild Church to build up a perfected leadership in sacred songs. The success of their effort is revealed in the growing popularity of the musical organization. Under the management of Mr. J. Paul Stalis, organist and director, the Idlewild Quartet is second to none in the City of Memphis.

The objective of the committee has not been merely an efficient choir. The major aim has been to lead the assembled people in the voicing of praise. Congregational singing is the result. All who enjoy the old hymns of the church can find inspiration in the united voices of a large congregation. From every viewpoint the music at Idlewild is uplifting.

Most Loads Carry Too Much Truck

Famous Economy Trucks
Fast--Reliable--Economical

For dependability, speed under load, with get-there-and-back "pop" through rough going and easy sailing at a minimum expense, you can't beat this truck—a truck built "right" by pioneer auto builders. And it was designed to haul more load and less truck. We have no hesitancy in saying that we believe this truck to be one of the best buys on the market today. Make us prove it.
